NUMBER 5

Fight Still On.

The fight over Federal offices remaining to be distributed in Kentucky continues among the faithful in Washington. Marshal George Long is alarmed over the reports that he may be misplaced and he will be on the scene this week to protect his interests. Another interesting report is that Leslie Combs will be withdrawn from his diplomatic berth.

Good Road Bills.

Letters of indorsement of the three good roads bills to be presented to the Kentucky Legislature by Senator Bosworth are being sent out from the Louisville Commercial Club to the members of the General Assembly. The three bills were prepared at conferences recently held in Louisville, at which time were present Senator Joseph E. Bosworth, Briton B. Davis, J. V. Beckman, A. T. Macdonald and J. W. Newman. This committee went carefully over all the details of the bills as provided by the constitutional amendment and gave them its hearty approval. They have also been indorsed by Sam P. Jones, president of the Kentucky Good Roads Association, and by the engineers and architects' clubs of Louisville. The Louisville Commercial Club will bring great influence to bear at Frankfort upon their passage. Each one of the Louisville and Jefferson county representatives has been asked to assist in every way possible in the furtherance of this movement.

For Charity's Sake.

In answer to the request of Judge Denis Dundon for a meeting of the ministers and officers of clubs and charity organizations quite a number gathered in the county court room yesterday afternoon and talked over the situation. Among those present were Mayor J. T. Hinton, Rev. M. T. Chandler, Elder Carey E. Morgan, Dr. B. M. Shive, Mrs. Lizzie Walker, Mrs. W. T. Brooks, Mrs. J. S. Wilson, Mrs. Frank Fithian, Mrs. J. T. Vansant. The matter of distribution of charity was thoroughly discussed and an agreement was entered into that Judge Dundon, Mayor Hinton and the different church societies would co-operate with each other in the future in regard to the distribution of charities to the worthy poor, and that it will be done in a systematic manner. The meeting will result, no doubt, in good and more efficient work in this line.

A Desirable Home.

S. T. Chipley will sell this afternoon at 2 p. m. his new cottage home on South High street. Attend the sale.

Circuit Court Today.

Judge C. C. Bagby, of Danville, notified Circuit Clerk Webb yesterday that he would be here today to enter judgments in cases under submission and to hear arguments for new trial in the Barton case.

Lincoln Institute Incorporated.

Articles of incorporation have been filed at Shelbyville by the Lincoln Memorial Institute, the capital stock being fixed at $400,000. This is the corporation that purchased about 400 acres of land in Shelby county on which it is proposed to conduct a negro school.

Kick Against James.

A report from Washington says that in the event Representatives James and Rainey are prevented from serving on the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation committee, it was brought out in a conference Sunday night that not a one of the 169 members of the minority party is willing to take their places.

Conductors File Report.

The conductors employed on the L. & N. system have completed an investigation of the relations existing between themselves and their employers and compiled a report which will be presented to the officials of the road in Louisville on January 25.

PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.The "Ice King" in His Cell.

Charles W. Morse, former ice king and banker of New York, is now in the Federal prison at Atlanta. A press dispatch referring to Mr. Morse says: He is registered as convict No. 2814, and tonight occupies a steel cell not in the least different from those to which are assigned several hundred other prisoners. His immaculate tailored garments gave way to regulation suit of stripes, nor did the distinguished prisoner escape the Bertillon expert, the prison photographer, the regulation bath or the barber. Morse arrived from New York at 10:45 a. m., in charge of two deputy marshals, and accompanied by his friend and close business associate, W. P. Reid, of Boston. He made no protest when the cameras of the newspaper men were trained upon him. He was placed in a cell and driven to the prison. Because he had not been vaccinated, Morse was not permitted to eat in the big dining room with his fellow convicts, and his first meal was served in his cell. The prisoner turned over to the prison clerk $218 in currency. He was assigned to Class 1, which entitles him to privilege of seeing relatives for friends for thirty minutes in each two weeks of his confinement. Morse probably will be assigned to the tailor shop or be put to work on the constructing gang. Mrs. Morse, formerly the wife of an Atlanta hotel proprietor, is expected here from New York tomorrow. After a conference with her husband, she will return to New York and begin trying to secure a pardon from President Taft.

A New One.

A western Kentucky exchange says: "A young man traveling through the State is representing himself to be in the employ of the Government and inspecting rural routes. He represents to the farmers that if they want to have their routes continued it will be necessary for them to sign a petition to that effect, showing them a form he carries. Later this signature to the 'petition' bobs up in the shape of a small check at a local bank. Keep your eye peeled for him."

Handsome Rug.

The large rug for the State reception room in the new Capitol at Frankfort was received from Austria Tuesday and placed upon the handsome hardwood floor. The rug has a delicately tinted blue effect, and is of the softest texture. It is 16x54 feet in dimensions and cost the State $1,800. The rug is one of the very finest that can be woven by the skilled Austrian rug-makers and matches well the other handsome furnishings of the apartment.

"Coalition" Indeed!

Walter Wellman, Washington correspondent for the Chicago Record-Herald, says that a coalition has been formed between the Taft administration and the regulars in congress for the purpose of whipping into line the Republican insurgents.

If Mr. Wellman does not know that the Taft administration and the Aldrich and Cannon forces, which he calls the "regulars," are one and require no "coalition," he could learn something to his advantage by communicating with the average Illinois farmer.

Drastic Anti-Treating Law.

The Anti-Treating bill introduced in the House at Frankfort by Representative Zimmernan, of the Bullitt-Simpson district, has attracted widespread attention and much comment. The author says it is not to be confounded with any State wide or local option measure, but simply seeks to break up a custom that has become an intolerable nuisance and that the chief supporters of the proposed law are those who like to go in a saloon and take a drink and then depart about their business. The bill provides a fine of from $10 to $25 for violations and in addition a forfeiture of license for the saloon keeper permitting treating in his place of business. The full text of the bill is as follows:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: Section 1—That it shall be unlawful for any person to treat or give to another person any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, wines or beers or any other intoxicating drinks or beverages in any saloon, barroom or other place where intoxicating drinks are sold by retail, or in any room or building adjoining said saloon or barroom, or connected therewith, and any person who violates the provisions of this act, shall be fined not less than $10 or more than $25 for each offense, and any saloon keeper or other retail vendor of intoxicating drinks who sells intoxicants to one person to give to another person knowing same are to be drunk in said saloon or barroom or other room or building adjoining same or connected therewith, shall, in addition to the above penalty have his license forfeited by the authorities having legal authority to forfeit same.

Section 2—All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

"Most Considerate."

President Taft held a conference with six of the railroad presidents and then, announced a change of program in the sending of his message dealing with interstate commerce and anti-trust laws. An Associated Press dispatch from Washington said: "President Taft found the railroad men most considerate in presenting their views." It was very kind, indeed, for these gentlemen to be "most considerate" to the president of the United States.

"Satisfactory."

Associated Press dispatches say that the administration bill relating to the interstate commerce law will in the main be satisfactory to the railroads; also that the railroad interests will object to the measure up to the last ditch committee members say is to be expected. Aie we to understand that this objection is merely to make it appear that the measure has not been framed so that it will in the main be satisfactory to the railroads?"

Farmers Demanding New Laws.

The State Union of the American Society of Equity, in session at Frankfort, adopted strong resolutions requesting the present Legislature to enact appropriate legislation to compel the dipping of all sheep in the State, so that the disease of scabies may be eradicated.

Another resolution asks for a law permitting farmers to use school buildings for meeting places for their organizations when the holding of school will not be interfered with.

The report of secretary-treasurer, S. B. Robertson, shows the society to be in a flourishing condition. During the year eighty-two local unions were organized and 4,453 new members enrolled, making a total membership at this time of 11,624 in good standing.

Another Large "Melon."

Another "melon" of large proportions—the distribution of 20,000,000 in common stock—is to be given to the stockholders of the International Harvester Company. The directors of the company have recommended that the entire 80,000,000 of stock be placed on a four per cent dividend basis, commencing next April.

Cures Dyspepsia; Trial Is Free

It is a popular mistake that only wealthy people who eat rich and highly-spiced foods suffer from dyspepsia, or, as it is also known, indigestion. The laborer in the street, the worker in the field also finds himself a victim of this disorder. Among the very greatest sufferers from it are women.

Dyspepsia is indicated by a constant feeling of laziness, by loss of appetite and troubled sleep, by sour stomach and distress after eating, by bad complexion and lusterless eyes.

There is no surer and speedier cure for this trouble than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which dyspeptics have been using successfully for twenty years. This great herb laxative compound cured Capt. Clark, of Buffalo, La., of dyspepsia and sour stomach that he had had for forty years, or until the lucky day that he heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It cured Joel Adams, of Montgomery, Ala., after suffering continuously for sixteen months. These are only a few of the many. But it is not expensive to be cured with this grand remedy, as it can be bought at any drug store in a 50-cent or $1 bottle.

Your very neighbors are probably life-long users of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, but if you want to know without expense what it will do for you personally, send your name to Dr. Caldwell and he will be glad to send you a free trial bottle. He is actually anxious to have you make a test of his remedy.

Thousands of families everywhere keep it in the house against such an emergency as constipation, sour stomach, indigestion, biliousness, dyspepsia, heartburn, torpid liver, etc., which may come on a member of the family any day. It is pleasant to the taste, acts gently and does not gripe. It is the great children's laxative tonic.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

DETAILS OF TWEED COSTUME

Design That Would Be Most Effective
If Made Up in Heather
Mixture.

In heather mixture tweed this would be most successful. The skirt is in plaits set rather far apart, the center front one is trimmed with buttons, while a band of material cut on the cross is arranged at the top of hem. The semi-fitting coat is single-breasted and fastens invisibly except at the top where a tab is cut in which a buttonhole is worked, a button being sewn on the other side to correspond. A curved strap cut on the cross is arranged from shoulder to pocket in front and to waist at back. Satin is used to face the collar and cuffs.

Hat of rough straw, swathed in black satin and trimmed with quills.

Materials required: Seven yards tweed 48 inches wide, seven buttons, one-half yard satin, five yards coat lining.

COMBINES SCARF AND MUFF

Novel Idea That Has Many Good
Points Fashionables Have Been
Quick to See.

A novel combination of scarf and muff is made of bands of chiffon, quillings of satin and strips of fur. It wraps the body in shawl fashion, and just at the waist line the width is gathered in under two long buckles.

From this point two long ends fall almost to the hem of a skirt. Buckles hold in the lower edges of each side, and heavy fringe hangs from these.

Thus far this is a beautiful shoulder scarf. But when the weather is cold and the hands of the owner need the comfortable warmth of a muff, it is there for the hooking. The lower ends are doubled up and hooked under the upper buckles. A fringed muff is the result. The combination is clever and pleasing.

Buy Few Things at a Time.

Middle class women buy too many clothes at one time. Consequently, as styles change rapidly, they never can be really quite "in style," and are everlastingly compelled to "make over" the large supply they have on hand.

Allured by the bargain counters they keep on buying because a thing is cheap.

How much more sensible it would be to buy fewer things and wear them out, and then have absolutely fresh, stylish ones as the fashions changed?

A large wardrobe of many gowns and its accompaniments always requires a vast amount of time to even care for properly, and unless one keeps a maid, the fewer and simpler the clothes the happier the woman—much finery always brings trouble and worry.

Smart Fashions for Children.

The smartest idea in children's street clothes is the dog-skin, made exactly like a man's glove and closed with one clasp, or a gauntlet kid glove in brown or tan. Both styles are fashionable and either is pretty. The last is perhaps more appropriate for wear with a heavy cloth coat; the former with furs or cloths that imitate them. In all instances the leggings must match the cloak. The socks for small girls and boys are now given plaid and fancy tops, and I have seen a display of odd, knitted stockings in white cotton with a lace stitch for party wear, which suggested pictures of colonial days, in which mothers made these little articles.—Harper's Bazar.

Imported Cloth.

The materials used in most of the new gowns that have just been brought over from Paris are black satin crepe meteor, changeable taffeta, moire antique, velvet cachemire de soie, silk serge satin cashmere, Perno (a combination of mohair and worsted), fine French serge, snowflake, close shaved zibeline, wide wale cheviot, camel's hair cheviot, and melange homespun.

Warriner Assumes Sole Responsibility.

Charles L. Warriner, who confessed to having embezzled $643,000 while treasurer of the Big Four railroad in Cincinnati, was taken to Columbus penitentiary Friday to begin a sentence of six years, which was imposed upon him following his plea of guilty to the embezzlement of $5,000.

Just before his departure Warriner issued a signed statement in which he declared that the various rumors circulated that he was protecting "some one higher up" were not true. He said there is no person "higher up" involved in the affair.

Warriner will be taken back to Cincinnati when the trials of Mrs. Jeanette Stewart Ford, "the woman in the case," and E. S. Cooke, of Chicago, are called. Mrs. Ford is charged with blackmailing Warriner, and her trial has been set for January 20. Cooke is charged in an indictment with receiving stolen money from the former Big Four treasurer. The date of the trial has not been decided upon.

THE CURFEW AT CHERTSEY

Romantic Association of a Pretty English Village with the Sun-down Bell.

At sundown the little Surrey village of Chertsey will re-echo to the tolling of the curfew bell, which, in accordance with ancient custom, is sounded every evening from September 29 to March 25.

It is appropriate that Chertsey should thus maintain the custom, for the village has interesting "curfew" associations. The curfew bell which hung in Chertsey abbey tolled for the funeral of Henry VI., murdered in the Tower of London and hurried to Chertsey to be buried "without priest, clerk, torch or taper, singing or saying."

The abbey was also the scene of the romantic legend which relates how Blanche Heriot, to save her lover Neville, nephew of Warwick the Kingmaker, condemned to die at sundown, climbed the curfew tower and held the clapper of the great bell. The story, always popular locally, attained wide fame when Mr. Clifford Harrison embodied it in his poem "The Legend of Chertsey." Since then reciters' audiences have probably had their fill of it.—Westminster Gazette.

Almost from the first his physician realized there was little or no hope, he soon lost consciousness and never rallied. The funeral took place Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. Services were conducted by Rev. Sweet, D. D., assisted by President Fisher, of the Millersburg Female College. Burial in Millersburg cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Butler have the sympathy of the entire community in this, their sad loss.

—Mr. C. W. Howard sold his grocery on Wednesday to Mr. Sam Endicott. This comes in the nature of a surprise to many of our people. Mr. Howard is one of our most prominent and prosperous business men, having been identified with the business interests of Millersburg for a quarter of a century. He came here from Moorefield and began as a salesman at the grocery of Mr. J. A. Miller. Later he formed a partnership with Mr. E. T. Beeding, conducting a grocery, which continued until after the fire of 1884. Since then he has conducted his business alone. He is one of the best business men of the town, always looking to the best interests of the town. He has been the promoter of many things for good here, which we now enjoy and we regret to give him up, as he has had many propositions made him away from here he will doubtless leave us in the near future. The door of his business house closed as his Saturday night. The work of invoicing began Monday.

Russia Leads the World in Wheat Production.

The United States has lost its place as the greatest wheat-producing country in the world, and Russia has won that distinction. Even though last year the total yield of wheat in the United States was next to the largest in the history of American agriculture, the crop of 1901 only having exceeded it, Russia last year produced the remarkably large harvest of 783,000,000 bushels, which constitutes the largest crop ever harvested by any country and 26,000,000 bushels greater than that of the United States.

The great yield of Russia for 1909 as shown by the revised official returns received by the United States Department of Agriculture exceeds by more than 100,000,000 bushels the previous record of Russia. Only twice has the wheat production of Russia surpassed that of the United States, the first in 1904, when the crop here was a partial failure. About one-fourth of the Russian wheat crop is exported.

Rye was grown on 72,000,000 acres in Russia last year. Rye is the chief bread grain of Russia.

Returns received by the Department of Agriculture from a dozen countries which in the preceding year produced over four-fifths of the so-called world's wheat crop, exclusive of the mid-season crops, of India and the Southern Hemisphere, show in the aggregate a net gain in 1909 of 387,000,000 bushels, or nearly 18 per cent., over the yield of the same countries in 1908. This would indicate that the so-called world's production last year was approximately 2,150,000,000 bushels. All but three of the countries heard from report an increase. Those with short crops are Germany, Hungary and Bosnia-Herzegovina.

Cox Acting Governor.

On account of the absence of Gov. Willson in Washington, Lieut. Gov. Cox will act as Governor till his return. Senator Conn Linn will preside over the Senate. A clash is expected in the Kentucky Senate when it will come up to Senator Linn to assign the county unit bill, introduced by Senator Vice, to committee.

Good Offer to "Hoboes."

An Arkansas land owner offers to give 4,000 acres of rich bottom land in the State to the "unemployed" without reservations or conditions. He made the offer at a meeting largely attended by what is termed the "officially unemployed," otherwise "hoboes," who drank the free coffee and cheered the speeches.

Tammany Not in It.

In handing out offices carrying salaries aggregating $200,000 a year Mayor Gaynor, of New York, has appointed only one Tammany man. Murphy has paid the Mayor many visits, but they have brought forth no patronage results.

THEATRICAL.

"BILLY" COMING TO THE GRAND.

"Billy," the three act farce, which was the only piece by the way to run all summer, at Daly's Theatre, New York, comes to the Paris Grand next Friday night, direct from its Broadway engagement, with the same cast which brought the piece into popularity when it was produced in the metropolis by the Shuberts. The story is that of Billy Hargraves, a football player, who loses four front teeth in a game. He retires for several months during which time it is given out that he is suffering from his accident, the nature of which is not divulged. He sets sail aboard the steamship "Florida" for Havana, accompanied by his sister, Alice, who is with him as a sort of bodyguard, to relieve him from the necessity of talking, for he is known Billy has filled the gap with a set of false teeth. He meets as passengers on the same steamship Mrs. Sloane and her daughter, Beatrice, as well as Sam Eustace. Both Billy and Eustace are in love with Beatrice, the odds in favor of the football hero. All progresses without incident until a steward bumps into Billy, flooring him. When he arises his false teeth are missing. Matters would not be so bad were it not for the fact that the hero is on the act of proposing to his sweetheart when the mishap occurs. He is unable to proceed and Beatrice flees to her mother. Eustace, then, circulates a report which reflects on Hargraves' character. Unable to utter any but guttural sounds, Billy takes the abuse in silence. How a play can be built around a set of "tombstones" is one of the interesting things that George Cameron, the author, has done. The farce by the way, was originally taken from the playlet which was seen for several years in vaudeville. The Shuberts saw its laughing possibilities and commissioned Mr. Cameron to do the sketch into a three act farce. All of the scenes are laid about the steamship "Florida," and while the play centers about Hargraves, his sister, Eustace, Mrs. Sloane and her daughter, there are about twenty other characters who figure in the amusing complications. The cast to be seen here is the identical one which played at Daly's. It includes Edgar Archibson, Ely, Mrs. Stuart Robeson, Jane Marbury, Caroline Harris, Marion Chapman, Franklin Jones, John Hickey, George C. Pearce, Charles Clagson, Louis Levine and fifteen others.

DEATHS.

—Newton Current, Confederate veteran and one among the bravest of General John Morgan's command, died suddenly at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at his home on North Main street. Mr. Current had been complaining for several months and while looking out a window said to his wife, who was near him, "I am dizzy," when he sank into her arms and expired.

Mr. Current was a son of the late Jesse Current, of near Ruddles Mills, this county, who reared a family of nine children. In 1862 Mr. Current, then a mere lad of 16 years, joined the Confederate army along with three other brothers, all of whom belonged to Company C, Capt. Harry Bedford, Fifth Kentucky Cavalry, commanded by Col. Roy Cluke.

Mr. Current participated in all the engagements led by Gen. Morgan, and in 1863 at Buffington's Island, above Cincinnati, was taken prisoner and sent to Camp Chase, at Columbus, but was later transferred to Camp Douglas at Chicago, where he remained until the close of the war.

Mr. Current was in his sixty-fifth year and until recently enjoyed good health. He was employed for years as night watchman at the G. G. White Distilling Company in East Paris. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Green, of Nicholas county, and four daughters, Mrs. Bourbon Current, of Richmond, Ky., Mrs. Ullman Lancaster, Mrs. Frank Redmon and Miss Anna Current, and one son, Mr. Harry Current.

The funeral services took place at the grave in the Paris cemetery yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan. The burial services were conducted by the Confederate Veterans. The pall bearers were: Dan Isgrigg, Ollie Carter, C. F. Dillake, C. A. McMillan, Dr. C. J. Clarke and Sol Current.

—Mr. Wm. Spencer, aged about 60 years, dropped dead at his home in Newport yesterday morning. Mr. Spencer was a wholesale dealer in pickles and preserves in Cincinnati. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Eliza Tucker, of this city. Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Horace Collins left for Newport yesterday to attend the funeral.

A Popular Fallacy.

The generally accepted belief that a person is useful in proportion as he is busy is controverted by a writer, who says: "I have a dog that is loaded up with fleas. In the summer time, when the fleas are plenty, that is the busiest dog I ever saw; when he isn't biting at the fleas he's snapping at the flies. He never has a minute to spare, but when he is the busiest he is the least account for practical purposes. And there is a young fellow in my neighborhood who has a Waterbury watch, and he smokes cigarettes. When he isn't winding his watch he is lighting a cigarette. He is a mighty busy young man, but he isn't worth two hoops in a water barrel."—Rule (Tex.) Review.

THROWN OUT AS SUGGESTION

Young Man Had Exhausted Many Possibilities, But There Was One Thing Left.

"I don't know what the world's coming to!" growled the young man seated in the corner of the compartment. He somehow thought it looked big to be continually finding fault with things generally. "Talk about individual rights, where are they?"

The other passengers were apparently content to listen, so the youth continued:
"If I walk on the footpath, I get jammed between a couple of perambulators; if I attempt to cross the street, some idiot of a cyclist is bound to imperil his worthless neck and my limbs by arranging a collision; if I travel by tram or bus, I can't choose my company; if I took to swimming to and from the office, some idiot in a boat would brain me with an oar; if I could fly—but what's the good of talking? I wonder if there's one single, solitary thing I could do without fear of molestation?"

"Yes," replied a burly navy opposite; "you might die, young 'un!"—Sunday Magazine of Los Angeles Herald.

In the Log Cabin Country.
When we celebrate prosperity we seldom save anything for a rainy day. The man who works for the best generally gets it while the other fellow is hoping for it. The man who can make a pillow of his conscience need not envy the millionaires of the world. When you lay up treasure in heaven the only way to be happy is to forget that there is any interest coming on it.—Atlanta Constitution.

A Careless Messenger.

After a messenger boy had eaten his lunch in a Pearl street restaurant in the New York financial district, Harry Bohrer, the manager, found a package on the table, and opening it he discovered that it contained $23,000 in currency and also sufficient negotiable securities to make a total of $50,000. From the papers in the package he believed the valuables belonged to the state bank, a few doors away, and hurried there with the money. The cashier quickly identified the parcel and Bohrer was given a reward.

Tricks of the Trade.

Friend—What on earth are you doing to that painting of yours?
Dauber—Can't you see? I'm rubbing a piece of raw meat over the rabbit in the foreground. Mrs. Alshodde will be here to-day, and when she sees her pet dog smell of that rabbit, she'll buy it.—Judge.

ORIGINATED IN ARMY RANKS

Expression That Spread Far Had Its Inception in the Mess Room of Officers.

Capt. Henry G. Lyon, U. S. A., was the innocent cause of the expression about "making a noise like" this or that. At Peekskill, in 1906, he gave instruction to officers of the New York National Guard doing duty in that tour of camp. The first day he formed the officers into a class in the big mess hall, which was open at the sides, so that all that went on inside was seen and heard by the enlisted men passing back and forth. In teaching the officers how to give commands, Capt. Lyon impressed upon the class the necessity of clear enunciation and of making commands like an officer, says "Arms," not "umps," etc. The privates' capacity for turning things to their own amusement was shown a few minutes after that first class was dismissed, for officers going through their company streets heard privates in front of a group of men shouting out: "Make a noise like an officer," whereupon the entire "class" would roar "umps." A reporter sent an account to a New York paper, and from this grew the expressions such as "Make a noise like a hoop and roll away," etc. However, it is seldom one hears the words "arms" or "march," the voice finding it much easier to slur the word till it may mean anything, and as the preparatory command indicates what is to be done, the command following is merely a signal for the execution of what has already been specified.

The Lion and the Man.

Little Henry (at the zoo)—What are those animals in the heavy cage, paw?

Mr. Peck—A lion and his mate, my son.

Little Henry—Is a man's wife called his mate, paw?

Mr. Peck—Not always, son. For instance, your mother is the captain and I'm the mate.

Want Dog Tax Repealed.

Of the big batch of bills showered on the Clerk's desk in the House at Frankfort on the first till day, a half dozen related to the dog tax law, the most of them calling for the repeal of the present law taxing each canine $1. Representative R. H. Akin, of Caldwell county, however, took a new tack to nullify the law, by providing in his bill that each housekeeper be entitled to one dog free, but to pay a tax of $2 on each additional dog. Under the present law, the dog tax goes to indemnify sheep owners, whose flocks may be decimated by dogs, any overplus reverting to the school fund in the county in which the tax is collected. The opposition to the law comes principally from the non-sheep raising sections. Republicans are committed to its repeal, it being a plank in their last State platform. A desperate attempt was made at the last session to repeal the law, but it failed.

Its All Good Reading.

The Dover News in commenting on the complaint of some subscribers regarding the amount of advertising carried by the paper says: "Some subscribers complaint of too much advertising in their county papers. It's not so. You can't get too much, for it is here that the subscriber gets the actual cash returns for his outlay for subscription. Of course he gets his money's worth of entertainment in the reading matter, but his financial gain comes from studying the ads. If in carefully studying the ads he finds where he can get bargains and save ten cents here, a quarter there and perhaps a dollar or two over yonder by patronizing the man who tells his prices in the paper, instead of paying the 'pint's a pound the whole year round' prices at the old place. Don't you see how you will not only save the price of your subscription but many times over by buying from the man who has the bargains and is not afraid to pay money to the printer to let you know of them. It will pay you to read over every advertisement in this paper."

Slap at Burley Society.

The old strife between the Burley Tobacco Society and the Kentucky branch of the American Society of Equity came to life with a vengeance at the session of the latter at Frankfort Friday when just before final adjournment the following resolution was offered:

"Resolved, that the convention recommend to the members of the American Society of Equity in Kentucky growing tobacco that they sign none but A. S. of E. pooling pledges before the meeting called for the 5th and 6th of August, 1910, in Louisville."

After a spirited debate the resolution was adopted. Members of the Burley Tobacco Society say this is a direct slap for the Burley organization and means open warfare between the two organizations when the Burley Society starts its pool early this year for the 1910 crop.

Before the adjournment the Society elected officers for the ensuing year, and Bowling Green was selected as the place for the next meeting, which will begin the first Monday in January, 1911. Congressman J. Campbell Cantrell of Georgetown, was re-elected president of the State Society of Equity.

The Swope Poisoning Case.

A quick arrest will be made by county officials in Kansas City if the Chicago physicians now examining the stomach of the late Colonel Thomas H. Swope, millionaire philanthropist, reports that the organ contains poison. Every detail for the apprehension of the person suspected of having poisoned Colonel Swope and attempting to inoculate other members of the family with typhoid germs is completed. Five private detectives are watching every move of the man. The suspect is high in social circles in Kansas City and his arrest would cause a sensation. An unverified rumor Friday night was that traces of poison were found in the stomach of Chrisman Swope, a nephew of Colonel Swope, who died on December 3, and that this led to the exhumation of Colonel Swope's body.

Still Deadlocked.

Judge Barker Selected for President.

Judge Henry Barker of Louisville, now on the Court of Appeals bench, will be the new president of State University at Lexington. It became known Friday that at the meeting of the sub-committee from the board of trustees appointed to recommend to the entire board a suitable person to succeed President Patterson, the unanimous vote of the sub-committee was for Judge Barker.

Assurances have been had, it is said, that the entire board will vote to approve this selection, and elect Judge Barker. Close friends of Judge Barker say that he will accept the honor. The whole board will be called to meet February 3 to receive the recommendation of the sub-committee and hold the formal election.

Embezzlement Case Dismissed.

Missed Father-in-Laws Funeral.

Saloon Men Will Fight.

The saloon men of Frankfort have engaged as counsel Judge J. H. Hazlerigg and Attorney Guy H. Briggs and will go before the Frankfort City Council at its next meeting and seek to have defeated, when it comes up for final passage, the ordinance granting to the Mayor the power to revoke the license of any saloonkeeper who shall be found to have violated the law. It is said that they will also make a fight on the ordinance which was introduced at the last session, and referred to the Ordinance Committee, which proposed to increase the saloon license in the city from $250 to $750 per annum, and further compels the saloonkeepers to remove blinds, partitions, etc., so that passers by may see that no sale of liquor is being made on Sundays.

FOLLOWED QUARRY TO DEATH

Hawk Unremittent in Its Pursuit of Partridge Selected for Its Prey.

Some men working in the fields west of Moscow village the other day saw a hawk start a partridge in a wheat field and attempt to catch it. The partridge was too speedy of wing, though, and for a short distance it flew straight for the village, after attempting to elude its pursuer, thinking, perhaps, that in the habitation of man there was protection from its merciless foe.

The two birds flew down Main street in front of the stores and people on the street, but the hawk was so engrossed in the pursuit of its prey that the presence of men did not frighten it off. The partridge flew about the buildings on Main street and then to the residence section.

It was rapidly tiring from its long flight, and as the hawk, which was stronger of wing, seemed about to clutch it in its talons the partridge attempted to fly in the window of A. J. White's residence, but the window was closed and the bird struck the glass with force enough to break its neck and shatter the pane in many pieces.

The crashing glass frightened the hawk and it quickly flew off, evincing a desire, however, to take the dead body of the partridge with it.—Mount Morris Correspondence Rochester Herald.

Ousted Negro Councilman.

The new Shelbyville City Council sprung a surprise Friday night when it ousted T. S. Baxter, the negro Councilman from the Sixth ward in that city. Baxter had been a member of the Council for eighteen years, and numerous plans had been attempted to get rid of him. Two weeks ago an ordinance was introduced abolishing the Sixth ward, in which Baxter resides, by adding the territory to the Fourth and Fifth wards. The new Sixth ward was created from territory that was heretofore embraced in the Fourth and Fifth wards.

Friday night the ordinance became effective, and when Baxter showed up at the meeting he was advised that he was no longer a member of the board. The Council then selected C. P. Hall, a prominent coal and lumberman, as the member of the board to represent the Sixth ward until the next regular election.

The Sixth ward, as it was formerly, embraced practically all the negroes in that city, and by adding it to the Fourth and Fifth wards it makes both of these wards Republican. This will be overcome, those interested claim, by changing the wards back as they were just before the election for Councilmen is held, two years hence.

To Celebrate Lee's Anniversary.

The one hundred and second anniversary of the birth of General Robert E. Lee will be fittingly celebrated tomorrow January 19th, in the circuit court room, at the court house, in this city, when the Daughters of the Confederacy the Bourbon county veterans, their sons and daughters and citizens generally will assemble for this purpose. The roster will be appropriately decorated by the Daughters with Confederate flags and a life size portrait of the famous general. Mrs. Charles Carol Lee, former president of the Daughters of the Confederacy, will preside and introduce the orator of the day, Prof. A. N. Gordon, of Louisville.

Last Saloon at Princeton Closes.

At noon Saturday Urey Pollard's license expired and the last of Princeton's seven saloons went out of business. On June 14 last prohibition was carried there by nearly ninety majority. Liquor licenses have been expiring since at intervals of about a month. Pollard having no competition for about twenty-five days. Four or five "bootleggers" have been convicted during the past few months. At 12 o'clock Saturday one hundred or more customers poured out of Princeton's last saloon.

Recommend Changes in System of Taxation.

After an exhaustive investigation to ascertain the state of the public feeling as to the system of taxation in Kentucky, the Tax Commission appointed by Gov. Willson in December, 10, and the Advisory Commission appointed at the same time to confer with it, have jointly made their report to the Governor, recommending decided changes in the system, which has been found to be, in the opinion of the commission, faulty to the extreme. The report was made public Friday.

The commission finds after a thorough inquiry throughout the State, in which conferences were held at various times in different counties to hear expressions from many citizens in their own communities, and after the taking of stenographic evidence from representative business men, that there is throughout the State a very general and well-grounded dissatisfaction with the tax system, based on the fact that in many towns and cities and combined tax rate State, city and county purposes imposes a most onerous burden, and upon the further fact that a great deal of property escapes taxation entirely, in spite of the utmost efforts of the assessors and the equalization boards to see that all taxable property is listed. The report is a lengthy one and a decided change in the system is recommended.

Decision Favors Assignee Pearce

Assignee L. E. Pearce, of Lexington, has received notice of the decision of Special Judge Bagby, rendered Saturday in the Bourbon Circuit Court in the matter of the assigned estate of William Tarr. The decision, which covers ten typewritten pages, sustains the action of the Bourbon County Court in appointing L. E. Pearce as assignee of the individual estate of William Tarr in place of Richard P. Stoll and James S. Stoll, deceased, and rules that the County Court has jurisdiction to wind up the affairs of the assigned estate.

Communicates With Wife By Carrier Pigeon.

By means of carrier pigeons, Morgan Brawner, who killed Bacon Robb, has been able to communicate with his wife every day since being confined in the county jail at Frankfort and the pigeons are still acting as messengers between the jail and the Brawner home in the county. When Brawner, who is a pigeon fancier, was placed in jail and held without bond on a murder charge, who took two of the carrier pigeons with him and kept them in jail for ten days, until they were used to their quarters. After that, when released, they would fly home and when hungry would return to the jail. In this way Brawner was able to communicate with his wife every day and not a day passed without a note from his wife. During the next six months the pigeons will continue their duties, as Brawner was sentenced to serve six months in jail for killing Robb.

Pure Food for Stock.

J. D. Turner, head of the stock food department of the Kentucky Experiment Station at Lexington has just completed the programme for the meeting of the State and Federal officials of feed control work, which will be held in Washington January 26 to 28, inclusive. Mr. Turner is secretary of the programme committee.

The object of the meeting is to reach an agreement on a uniform law for all the States of the Union and embody it in a bill to be passed by Congress as a national law. The object is to put control of the stock feed business on something of the same footing as that which under the pure food law controls food for human consumption.

While the human food laws have been nationalized and put into effective operation, those which control stock have been practically neglected. Nearly every State in the Union has a different law on the subject and the consequences are that there is much confusion among the manufacturers of stock feed while the purchasers in the different States have inadequate protection.

The question of equalizing these laws and making a national one is therefore very important, especially in the Southern States, where there is a large consumption of stock feed, and under the loose laws little protection to the purchasers. It is estimated that in Kentucky alone the purchases of manufactured stock feed aggregate at least three and a half million dollars. It has been found that there is much fraud perpetrated in stock feed, sawdust and other worthless substances being freely used for adulteration, and in some cases articles deleterious to the health of stock are freely employed in these feeds.

Aids Girl Strikers.

Miss Helen Taft, daughter of the President, is lending her aid to the several thousand shirt-waist strikers in Philadelphia. Saturday Miss Taft and about ten of her girl friends at Bryn Mawr college went into town and proceeded to a conference of prominent society women at the home of Mrs. Henry LaBarre Jayne, at which the strike was discussed, and plans formulated to aid the girls. How prominent a part Miss Taft took in the conference could not be learned, but the fact that she attended the conference has given renewed hope to the shirtwaist operatives on the strike.

Representative C. J. Diekema, of Michigan, Saturday announced himself as a candidate for Speaker of the House to succeed Joseph G. Cannon when the Sixty-second Congress is organized.

Minority Leader.

Champ Clark, the minority leader of the House, returned to Washington Saturday after ten days of speech-making in Missouri and the Middle West, and spread cheering predictions of sweeping Democratic victory in the Congressional election this fall.

Cook Has Friends in Denmark.

A special from Copenhagen in Sunday's Courier-Journal says: "The truth of Dr. Cook's claims of having reached the North Pole may yet be demonstrated in the opinion of the few friends and believers he still has left here. I understand that John R. Bradley, the backer of Dr. Cook, has asked Capt. Sverdrup, the noted Arctic explorer, to go with him on a polar exploration trip, and that Sverdrup has consented to make the trip. Plans have not so far progressed yet as to set any time for starting, but as near as I can learn preparations are being made."

"More than one of the men most familiar with Arctic work, while admitting that Dr. Cook has been unfortunate in his action since his return from the North, and failed entirely so far as presenting scientific proof of having reached the pole, believe that he went far north, and on his return honestly believed that he had reached farthest north. These men are inclined to believe if Sverdrup undertakes the trip with Mr. Bradley he will be able to bring back some corroboration of Cook's narrative."

James on Investigation Committee.

Lamphere's Accomplice Arrested

A negro woman, Elizabeth Smith, was taken into custody at Laporte, Ind., by the Sheriff as a witness to the murder of Mrs. Belle Guinness and her children by Ray Lamphere, as revealed in the publication of Lamphere's confession to the Rev. E. A. Schell, now president of the Iowa Wesleyan University.

Lazy Man's Clock.

An alarm clock attachment which feeds and waters the horses is in operation on the farm of George Howe, of Center Hill, Conn. At 5:30 o'clock every morning the alarm goes off, releases a weight which slides several quarts of oats into each stall and removes the covers of the water pails. Thus Mr. Howe is enabled to sleep an hour later every morning. Moreover all the horses are fed at the same moment and there is no jealous neighing because one horse is fed before his neighbor.

Whipping Post Bill.

Among the unique bills likely to be presented in the House one day next week is one establishing the whipping post in Kentucky. This bill is to be introduced by Robert L. Harris, Representative from the Eighth and Ninth wards, Louisville.

"The bill will provide that this kind of punishment shall be meted out to wife-beaters and persons found guilty of petit larceny," he said. "I have not quite perfected the bill as yet, but I think it will be ready for introduction about next Thursday. The number of lashes to be administered to a person found guilty of wife-beating or petit larceny shall be determined by the trial judge, but who will be called upon to administer the whipping I have not yet decided upon."
